ORAL JUDGEMENT

Rule. Mr.N.J. Shah, for Mr.D.N. Patel, waives service of rule on behalf of the respondent.

With the consent of the parties, the matter is taken up for hearing today.

The petitioner is a passport holder. In the original passport, the birth date mentioned is 5th December, 1948. Therafter, the petitioner, gave an application to the authority on 20th April, 2002 on the ground that her correct birth date is 20th April, 1949. For this, the petitioner has relied upon the copy of the extract of the Birth Certificate.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the Authority is directed to decide the application of the petitioner dated 20th April, 2002, which is pending before the Authority. The Authority may decide the representation of the petitioner for correcting the birth date in accordance with law and as per the Rules, and after considering the necessary evidence on record, may pass appropriate orders in accordance with law. From the evidence on record, if the Authority is satisfied that the grievance of the petitioner is justified and the correct birth date of the petitioner is 20.4.1949, then necessary orders correcting the entry may be passed and on that basis, corrected passport may be given to the petitioner. However, it is for the authority to appreciate the evidence and to pass appropriate order in accordance with law. The decision may be taken expeditiously and preferably, within a period of two weeks.

Since the petitioner at the initial stage has not taken care for giving appropriate birth date, the petitioner is directed to pay costs of Rs.2,000/- to the authority. The said amount may deposited with the Authority within a period of two weeks from today.

The petition is accordingly allowed. Rule is made absolute to the aforesaid extent, with costs quantified as above.

Direct service is permitted.
